Thursday is target date. Our comms folks are sending the package to WH comms this morning, including QandAs.

I sent to WH comms Friday afternoon, flagging that this was on schedule to go mid-week this week. Do you have a target day I can go back to them with to prod them on whether they have any concerns with the language?

Also, do you have draft Q and A? I think that's as important as the statement. Thanks.

Dan -- any thoughts on this? We probably need to get to WH comms.
